Dear Media Representative,

Please return the completed application form with the following support documentation:

- A letter on the company letterhead of the Media organisation or Publication which you represent, signed by the Editor (or similar) confirming your association with that Media organisation or Publication. Prior accreditation does not automatically carry over, nor confer acceptance for 2009.

Please read this document carefully and ensure that you complete all of the required fields. We must receive your application prior to the start of the round.

The ARC is looking for a positive media presence in 2009. Individual promoters of events may require event accreditation and you should check with each event if any additional requirements exist.

Kind Regards

Lynn Matthews
